THE DISTRICT ATTORNEYSHIP.

Increase of population always brings increase of crime, and the criminal records of Yolo county will show that it is not an exception to the rule. It is, then, of the greatest importance that the People's Attorney should be a man of legal ability; industrious, persistent and energetic. He should be known to possess those qualities before he is elected, and at this late date in our history as a county it is a wonderful exhibition of presumption for an unexperienced, untried attorney, a "briefless barrister," to ask election to an office so important as that of District Attorney. With such a man to represent the people, and keen, able lawyers to defend the criminal, our courts might become entirely powerless for the punishment of crime. On the contrary, the criminal with a verdict of "not guilty," would leave the Court House with his character whitewashed, and a certificate to introduce him into good society. Such a condition of affairs existed at one time in our neighboring county of Sacramento, until, without regard to politics, the people elected a first-class lawer, Mr. J. C. Goods, District Attorney. The result was that the criminal element became alarmed and their depredations notably less frequent, owing to the vigorous prosecution of a competent lawyer acting in the capacity of People's Attorney. The people of Sacramento acted wisely, and we think that at the coming election the law-respecting voters of Yolo county will, in their own interest and for the public good, elect the best man, the most competent man asking their votes for the office of District Attorney, Mr. F. E. Baker. To elect C. H. Garoutte, we fear would encourage the perpetration of crime in our midst by assuring safety to the criminally disposed before our courts.

$3 AND $2.50 APIECE.

It transpired, during the late Chronicle libel suit at Placerville, that in Alameda county Messrs. Page and Co. estimated the value of Democratic votes at $3 apiece. This is a very flattering exhibit, as the amount above stated is quite a sum of money. The Republicans of Yolo have a much less appreciation of the value of the exercise of the "God-given right of suffrage" upon the part of Democrats, than had Page & Co., our worthy candidate for County Clerk on the Republican ticket a day or two after the election two years ago making the remark, in the presence of two good Democrats, that although he was elected by a large majority, yet he felt safe all the time, as he could at any time have bought enough Democratic votes at $2.50 apiece to elect him. This was particularly rough on one of his Democratic listeners, as he had voted for the gentleman at that election. He doesn't propose to do so this year, however; and after so flagrant an insult, we hardly expect any other Democrat to do so. The fact is, fellow Democrats, that every time you vote for and support one of these Radicals you are simply placing yourself in a position to merit and receive the contempt and redicule of the very men you vote for on the opposite ticket. $2.50 a vote! Can you brook an insult like that? Shame upon a Democrat who would vote for a man who, even in the heat and flush of an ill-gotten victory, would utter such a sentiment!

FOR AND AGAINST.

One of the most prominent and active Republicans of Woodland stated publicly on Wednesday that he knew it to be true that if either Mr. Reed or Mr. Mering will say that they will not, if elected, vote for Mr. Sargent for United States Senator under any circumstances, many prominent Republicans, including himself, will not support them; and further, that he would vote for the Democratic nominees. On the other hand, the Mail of the same day says, "We will say for our candidates, speaking by authority, that neither of them, if elected, will vote for J. T. Farley or A. A. Sargent." So there is quite a divergence, it seems, among our opponents on the Senatorial question. Part of them desire Sargent's reëlection, while others do not. This being the case, Mr. Lambert and Mr. DeWitt will have an easy job to get elected. The safe way for every voter who desires to see Sargent shelved will be to vote for the Democratic Legislative nominees, who are opposed to him from principle. The Mail's "by authority" doesn't have much weight these times.

THE Mail says "by authority" that the Republican Legislative candidates will not vote for Sargent if they are elected; certain prominent Republicans and lots of the rank and file of that party refuse to vote for said legislative aspirants unless they will vote for Sargent if elected. But as all good men want to avoid the risks of another term of Sargent, they should oppose all candidates for the Legislature who are doubtful, and vote for the Democratic nominees.

THE Legislature consists of 120 members. Twenty of these are hold-overs, leaving 100 to be chosen at the next election. The Democrats now have a majority of 17 hold-overs, and must elect 44 out of the 100 members, in order to secure the majority; the Republicans must elect 58.

THE WEEKLY MAIL

Makes a last lingering appeal to the voters of Yolo, to sustain their pet candidate in their dying struggle for victory. We never yet knew the Mail to advocate the election of a Democrat, and we defy Mr. Wagstaff to show us one instance in the entire time he has had control of that paper where he has supported a Democrat for office; and yet he has the brazen effrontery to assert that "a man who never scratches his ticket is not honest!" When a man who claims to be a Democrat on principle falls into the practice of scratching his ticket, there is only one construction we can put upon that action, and that is that he has been influenced by the enemy; and we think the rule will work equally well when applied to the other party. Immediately after making the above assertion, the inconsistent writer of the article names over the entire Radical ticket and urges his readers to vote for every one of them. There is consistency for you. It is all right, it is very proper and in conformity with the true "individual liberty," etc., of American citizens, for Democrats to scratch their tickets and vote for the man in local elections; but when applied to the other party it seems to fail to meet with that approbation, that particular gratulation it receives when applied to the other side. The only time we ever knew the editor of the Mail willing to scratch a man on his ticket was when he was around trying to swap off part of the Republican candidates to secure the election of his brother-in-law as Superintendent of Schools. We do earnestly hope that Democrats will bear in mind that in all the "splitting" of tickets which has been done in this county for the last six years, our party has invariably got the worst of it.

THE INDEPENDENT MOVEMENT IN THE COUNTY OF YOLO.

Certain Republican politicians in the county thought they could be elected to office as Independents, but that they could not be elected as Republicans. They were, therefore, anxious for an Independent organization, which should be confined to the county offices. It was requisite to the success of the scheme that there should be no Republican County nominations. The Republican County Central Committee solemnly assured the County Central Committee of the Independents that there should be none. It was well understood that it would not do to give the name "Independent" to a ticket made up exclusively of Republicans. To give, therefore, an appearance of sincerity and good faith to the movement, the names of H. L. Lewis, I. W. Jacobs and James Johnson were placed on the ticket. Barney, Burns and Hiller were elected, and Lewis and Jacobs were defeated at the September election. A Republican nomination for the County Judgeship rendered certain the defeat of Johnson. The Yolo Mail pretended to support Johnson, but published the communications of various anonymous scribblers who saw fit to assail him through its columns. Judge Johnson was defeated. This only proves what every voter in the county knows—that the so-called "Independent" movement in this county was a hollow Republican trick, concoted for one purpose only, viz: to elect certain Republican candidates upon the ticket at the sacrifice of the rest.

THE "BABY ACT" CANDIDATE.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—Frightful news comes to us from your quarter respecting the candidates who have stuck up their heads for office at the hands of the people—something damaging against each and all of them. For instance, we hear that a candidate of manly stature and presence plays ball with the half-grown boys, and is exceedingly expert in throwing and catching, and is looked upon as quite a hero by the small boys. But we don't care for that, nor consider that the diversion detracts from his qualifications for the position he seeks. It will be remembered that one of America's greatest jurists played marbles with the boys, and John Marshall may not be the last who will play with the boys. But they say that the Baby Act has been plead against honest debts by grown candidates, in the courts when sued. Can you tell us who they were? We are seeking information under difficulties. Yours, etc.,

HUNGRY HOLLOW.

P. S.—Rumor has it that one of the candidates for District Attorney comes under this head, and that it is not Mr. Baker. H. H.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

This morning we publish the last of the series of ably written articles upon the necessity of a Convention for the revision of the State Constitution. We believe that necessity exists; the masses of the people so believe, regardless of party lines, and the people, the bone and sinew of the State, upon whom falls the burden of taxation and the support of government, will vote for the Convention. Every man who desires to have the grievous wrongs righted which are now in existence, such as the taxation of growing crops, the double taxation of the property of one class and the exemption of another, should certainly vote for the Convention.

POLITICS.

Things political are beginning to warm up. We have noticed a number of candidates on the street within a day or two—the Democrats with a cheerful smile radiating their countenances, they being assured by every indication of unanimous success. The Republicans, on the other hand, have that woe-begone, uneasy look, which generally overcasts the countenances of those who know defeat is certain, yet hate to loose their hold upon their last vestige of hope. Cheering news comes from everywhere. The Radicals, or "Independents," as they sometimes call themselves, when facetiously inclined, are decidedly at a disadvantage. The most of them employ their time in rushing around from place to place denying things which they say the "lying rebels" have told on them. They get laughed at for their pains. They are on the defensive, and we "have 'em on the hip." The little Mail is so scared for its pet candidates, Messrs. Mering and Garoutte, that (metaphorically) great beads of sweat stand out on its little forehead. It has been mighty sick the last few mornings and there is no prospets of improvement. Our meeting last night at Cacheville was a rouser, and the lion was bearded in his den. The "Watchdog of the Treasury," the "noblest Roman of them all," as the little campaign sheet dubs its chief pet, quailed perceptibly under these home thrusts. He might as well give up the fight first as last.

A PERTINENT INQUIRY.

Republicans, Democrats, farmers, laboring men, business men and all other men capable of intelligent judgment—we ask you to lay aside prejudice, and answer the following questions: If you had to employ an attorney in your private business; if great financial issues were at stake, in which you were interested; if you were on trial for your life—which of the two, C. H. Garoutte or F. E. Baker, would you employ to defend your life or your property? No man who looks to his own best interests can answer otherwise than that the experience and legal knowledge of Baker would give him the preference. The same reason holds good as regards the public service. The logic, of course, holds its tenure. Garoutte may be qualified. Baker is competent, capable and reliable as the people's Attorney.

WHY WANT THE JOB?—It does seem like a small transaction for a political committee to go outside of its own county, where it has an organ, to get its ballots printed, because the job can be done a little cheaper. This is what the Woodlnd Democrat says is intended by the Democrats of Yolo. It protests; but we don't see why it should, since it asserts that it has not yet been paid for the ballots it printed at the last election.—S. F. Call.

We wanted the work simply because it belonged to us, and we publish the Call's remarks to show how others view the matter referred to. For the credit of the Committee and the party it represents, as well as for general information, we will state that we have since received the order for the ballots and all other needed printing at a fair price. All fair-minded men would scout the idea of keeping any patronage within the gift of a party from the office of the local organ of that party, because it charges local rates; and while the said organ is working, not only for its principles, but for its candidates, year in and year out, continually, without so much as receiving thanks therefor. It is right that the public should know these things, and hence this little explanation. If we should be so unfortunate, however, as to be editor of this paper during another campaign, there will be a clear understanding had to start with. As to present arrangements, everything is now entirely satisfactory.

PRO BONO PUBLICO.

We are not an enemy of C. H. Garoutte. In the practice of his profession we wish him all the success his ability entitles him to. We hope he may succeed as a lawyer and would not place one obstacle in his way. We like him personally; therefore our objections to him as a candidate for the office of District Attorney are above personal considerations. We oppose his election pro bono publico. He may be fully capable, but this remains to be proven. The people want and are determined to have as their representative in that office, a man known to be capable. The election of District Attorney is not, in a public sense, a question between men, but a question as to who is the best and most competent man to represent the people in cases that must arise where public interests are at stake. Mr. Baker has proved himself the right man in the right place, and hence our support of his reëlection.

The Mail had better be careful how it inveighs against the Know-Nothings. Ten to one but the editor was one himself, or would have been if he had been old enough, in the palmy days of that dark-lantern organization. At any rate it is certain that the most of them merged into the Republican party and have since been a part of it. Hence we say, the Mail should be careful, or it will tread on the toes of its nearest and dearest political friends.

ALL members of secret societies will take potice that the Mail, recently, in speaking of their organizations, said: "We oppose them as we oppose the devil."

A LAST WORD.

As the last issue of the Weekly DEMOCRAT went to press a week before election day, we issue this number a day in advance, with the hope of again reaching most of its readers within the county before the election takes place, in order to have a few final words with them before going to the polls to vote.

We appeal to our friends throughout the county to stand by the Democratic ticket. The names upon it are those of good and competent men—every one, without exception. The principles they represent are those which are best calculated to advance the interests, protect the right and promote the happiness of the masses of the people.

Claiming that the above is the truth, we again ask every voter to weigh well the consequences his ballot may entail upon the people. Vote the straight Democratic ticket without scratching a name. It is the best in the field, in our judgment. Urge your friends to vote it. Use all honorable means for its complete success.

Give us the triumph of the Democracy and Democratic principles everywhere, and then happiness will reign throughout the land, as of yore.

BE VIGILANT.

It will be the duty of Election Boards to watch closely and see that there is no fraudulent voting on election day. After what transpired in San Francisco and other places at the last election in consequence of our loose registration system, allowing that city and the State to be carried by fraud, and proving that instead of the Great Register being a means of preserving the purity of the ballot-box, it is made the means of almost unlimited fraud, thus vitiating the franchise system and nullifying the will of the people, the great mass of whom vote honestly and conscientiously—after all this, together with the fact that there are upon our Great Register an immense number of names which ought not to be there, or at least the names of many who have no known abiding place in this county, the polls cannot be watched too closely. See to it that our elections are honestly conducted and the will of the people fairly expressed at the ballot-box; then all will be well.

SCRATCHING AND TRADING.

When candidates are compelled to allow their friends to resort to the infamous practice of "trading" to secure election, their case is pitiable indeed. We are informed on good authority that at least two of the candidates on the Republican ticket are permitting their backers to trade part of their ticket for their benefit. If this is true we are sorry. We did hope that a fair and friendly contest would be made on both sides, without resorting to such dirty political subterfuges as trading. A man who would resort to it ought to be tabooed from politics. It is too mean to be tolerated by any party. He takes advantage of the influence he has to injure the very men who are giving him their assistance. We hope no Democrat will listen to the overtures of such contemptible creatures.

THE GREAT REGISTER HUMBUG.

The Great Register of Yolo county just printed contains over forty-four hundred names. This is simply absurd. That of Solano county has only 4,160, and there is doubtless double the population in Solano that we have in Yolo. In Sacramento county there must be four times our population, yet there are only eight thousand some odd names on the Great Register, while Yolo has nearly forty-five hundred. The voters at the polls must be watched very closely. There is a great wrong in this Register business somewhere.

The Madison Heraid, a professedly Independent paper, referring to Sam Mering's nomination and candidacy for the Assembly, says: "A laboring man was there set aside by treachery, to make room for Mr. Mering, hence it is the duty of all laboring men to resent the insult cast upon them, by voting for Mark DeWitt and electing him." We think there is very little danger of laboring men voting for Mr. Mering. DeWitt is not only a poor man himself but is the poor man's friend."

VOTE THE TICKET.

On Wednesday, September 5th, the voters of Yolo county will vote for their choice of candidates for Joint Senator, Assemblyman and several county officers. We appeal to every voter in the county to vote for the candidates placed in nomination by the Democratic party; and we do so because we believe them to be the best suited to carry out the will of the people; believing also that the principles they represent are the best for the government of the county as well as for the State and the country at large. We present our candidates in brief before you:

Hon. John Lambert, our candidate for Joint Senator, is a lawyer of first-rate ability, well qualified to fill the exalted position for which he has been selected. Mr. Lambert has served one term in the Assembly, and made a record while there of which he and his constituents may well feel proud. He is immensely popular with the people and we hope and believe will be triumphantly elected. Don't fail to vote for him.

W. M. DeWitt, our candidate for Assemblyman, is so well known as a lawyer and a man of the people, that it seems almost useless to mention him in this connection. Like Mr. Lambert, he is known to be strictly honest, and also fully capable to represent the county with credit. He will do himself, the county and the State honor in the next Legislature. Vote for him.

At the head of our county ticket proper is the name of that honest, hard-fisted farmer, J. S. Tutt, our nominee for Sheriff. Sam has lived in the county for over twenty years; has been identified with her interests during all that time; has filled offices of trust before—Justice of the Peace and Associate Judge of the County Court. He is a practiced, capable intelligent citizen, and will bring to the office of Sheriff just the qualifications required for its duties. Every voter is respectfully invited and urged to vote for J. S. Tutt for Sheriff.

P. W. Fisher, for County Clerk, is a gentleman who has resided for several years in the county, is an educated gentleman well qualified to fill the office of Clerk, and if the people want an honest, straight-forward man for County Clerk they cannot do better than to elect him to that office. He will not resort to any underhanded means to obtain votes, but solicits your aid, and we urge you in behalf of the party to vote for Mr. Fisher and make him Clerk of Yolo county.

R. W. Megowan, for County Recorder, is a good square, honest and capapable man for that position, and will fill the office with credit to himself and to the satisfaction of the whole people. An especial fight is being made against Mr. Megowan, as against Mr. Tutt and Mr. Fisher, but he ought to, and we have no doubt will be, elected. Let your vote help to make him our next County Recorder.

A. C. Kean, our present and future Treasurer needs that very little be said in his behalf. He has served the people so long and so well that all are satisfied with the administration of his office and we are hopeful that nearly all will deposit their ballots in his favor. Do so by all means. The office of Treasurer is one of great responsibility and little profit, and Mr. Kean fills the bill exactly as County Treasurer.

F. E. Baker, candidate for District Attorney, has filled that position so well that the voter can cast his ballot for him without any uncertainty as to how the duties of the office will be performed by him. He has been tried and not found wanting. Through Mr. Baker's perception, keen discernment and clear understanding of the law, coupled with his persevering and successful effort in prosecuting in behalf of the people, the county has been saved several thousand dollars that would otherwise have been lost. The office requires legal ability and experience, Mr. Baker has had the latter and possesses the former in an eminent degree. Vote for him and he will not disappoint you.

H. B. Pendegast, for School Superintendent, needs no laudation at our hands. He is just the man the people like in the office he has so ably administered, and there is not a district in all the County where he is not popular with teachers, scholars and parents. Such an officer ought not to be changed. He will not be. Vote for him and enjoy the satisfaction of helping to swell his majority.

J. E. R. O'Farrell, for Surveyor, is a young man in whose favor much might be said. He is vouched for as a competent Surveyor, and an honest and deserving gentleman. Give him the aid of your ballot and you will not regret it.

S. L. Monday, for Public Administrator, is one of Yolo's oldest farmers; has filled the responsible office of Coroner with credit to himself; has made a gallant fight during the present canvass, doing his share of the speaking and paying his part of the bills all the time. He solicits your votes and will perform honestly and ably the duties required of him.

Peter Krellenberg, renominated for Coroner, has filled one term with entire satisfaction and asks your votes for another term. No one doubts his fitness for the office in every particular. Give him your vote and help re-elect a good man for County Coroner.

STRANGE, AT LEAST.

Why is it that the Great Register of this county contains more than double the number of names, in proportion to its population, than those of the counties around us? Look out at the polls and see that no illegal votes are cast by either party. The purity of the ballot-box should be preserved at all hazards.

OWNING UP AT LAST.

Many of our readers remember how Horace Hawes was lionized for getting up the Registry Law, and how it was rushed through a Republican Legislature as a pet measure of that party. In fact it has always been favored by that party and opposed by the Democrats. A late number of the San José Mercury, one of the most pronounced Radical sheets on the Coast, can stand it no longer, and in a late number cautions its readers to "look out for fraudulent voting," and says:

Our registry law is incomplete. It is worse—it is a positive aid to the unscrupulous to vote every dead man on the Great Register if they can. Until our law is so amended as to dispense with this useless and expensive fraud protector we must expect to be imposed upon, and at the coming election all honest voters can do is to challenge every voter that cannot be clearly accounted for, if needs be by a force of mounted men whose duty it shall be to prevent the casting of fraudulent votes and of still worse repeating.

Just what Democrats have always said of it. Our party have always claimed that it was a very expensive and worse than useless piece of Radical party machinery. Democrats, beware! watch every voter and be sure that not one ballot is deposited on either side, which is not legally entitled to be cast.

THE REPUBLICAN BREACH.

The Radicals differ widely in this county as to their requirements of Legislative candidates. One faction says it will not support Sargent men under any circumstances, and the other—and by no means an insignificant faction—says it will not support any candidate who is not an avowed Sargent man, while some of its prominent members declare that they will vote for Democrats rather than for anti-Sargent Republicans. To entangle the matter still worse, the Mail says the Republican candidates are anti-Sargent men. How they can expect to bring order out of such confusion as this is more than we can imagine. The only possible way in which they could elect, even if there were Republican votes enough in the county to do it—which there are not—would be for the leaders and fuglemen to whip the voters into the traces and drive them to the polls. That plan has worked successfully at Vallejo, but it will not do in Yolo.

TOO MUCH FOR SAM.

"Uneasy lies the head which wears a crown," is a trite saying, but we'll warrant that no crowned head ever lay more uneasily than did the head of our worthy Republican candidate for the Assembly the other night, when he was confronted in his own home with so many friends of his opponent. He weakened and went home with sinking heart. Why was not Wag. there to hold his hand and pour words of encouragement into his ear? No use, gentlemen, we have won the fight from top to bottom, as it now looks and we have done it fairly. After the fourth of March next, the scenes which have known a few of your filibustering candidates will know them no more forever. It is sad to contemplate, but we can't squeeze out a tear. Vale, immaculate trio of "Independents."

"FOR THE CONVENTION."

All the ballots for this county are printed with these words upon them. Those who want to vote for a Convention to revise the present State Constitution or make a new one, only need to deposit the ballot just as it is. Although this has been explained before, some still seem to have the idea that the word "Yes" is necessary in order to make it an affirmative vote, which is not the case. Every ballot deposited as they are printed will be a vote for the Convention. If any desire to vote against it, they must cross off the printed line and write instead the words—"Against the Convention." We trust every voter will deposit his ballot as it is printed in this respect.

A WORD OR TWO.

We do not want the Democrats of Yolo county to forget Mr. R. W. Megowan, our worthy candidate for Recorder, on Wednesday next. Mr. Megowan has been a resident of the county for a long time and his interests are all centered here. He is a mechanic, a carpenter, and we we would especially urge upon the laboring class to rally to his support. Mr. Hiller has held office four years here, has made money and can retire with a competency. Mr. Megowan is poor, and his election would be a great help to him in supporting and educating his family. Give Bob. Megowan your support and you will never regret his election.

THE SPLIT ON SARGENT.

Says the Solano Republican: "The Yolo Mail says it speaks by authority in declaring neither of the Republican nominees in that county—C. F. Reed and S. N. Mering—if elected will vote for A. A. Sargent." And the friends of Mr. Sargent, including all who refused to forsake their organization in the Bidwell campaign and call themselves something they were not, viz: "Independents," and all the Federal Brigade, with some others of the rank and file, "declare" that they will not support or vote for legislative candidates who are not avowed Sargent men. So goes the Legislative-Senatorial fight in Yolo.

WAG. says, "all is vanity." We suspect this adage was more strongly impressed upon his mental perception, after Reed bull-dosed him out of the nomination for Joint Senator than at any other time in his eventful career.

Two "B's" and an "H" seem to be the trademark of the Republican party in Yolo. A perpetual injunction will be laid on that trademark next Wednesday, unless we are mistaken.

A FLAT DENIAL.

In the whining article published in this morning's issue of the Mail under the head of "Ingratitude and Inconsistency," it is intimated that Baker had promised John Lambert not to be a candidate for District Attorney.

This has been repeated several times during this campaign by Garoutte's friends, to the effect that such a promise was made two years ago. This we pronounce an unqualified falsehood and must have been known as such to the "Friends of Fair Play," the imaginary individuals over whose signature the article was written.

Our informant on this subject is reliable, and we say the facts are that no agreement was ever entered into between the gentlemen above referred to, nor was the subject of the withdrawal of either from the contest for the nomination of District Attorney ever discussed by them.

So much for the last lie of the Mail, perpetrated for the purpose of exciting prejudice, in order to bolster up the waning cause of their pet candidate.

AN UNPLEASANT CHANGE.

The most poignant feelings of a complete goneness are those which the average official experiences when compelled to walk out of a nice cool office and face the cold charities of the outside world. The "immaculate trio," judging from present indications, will experience those feelings in their most acute poignancy on the fourth of March next. Then will their life tenure on the three offices now held, to their great astonishment, be snapped asunder, and they will be left to flounder in the slough of unofficial despond. The two "B's" and an "H" are very likely to be compelled to step down and out.

THE ATTORNEYSHIP RACE.

The "California Boy" has shown some speed in his race for the County Attorneyship, but his competitor, although a little lame, has been too "footy" for him, so far. The "Boys" made quite a spurt at the beginning of the contest, and showed signs of considerable outcome, but it is evident he wants a vast amount of "work" before he can successfully compete with Baker on the political turf. Go into training, Chawles for the Fall meeting two years from now, and don't enter in less than a four-minute race.

THE canvass in Solano is going on very satisfactorily to the Democracy. The Vallejo Daily Times says: News from Rio Visia, Suisun and Benicia is to the effect that the political meetings held there by the Democratic Legislative nominees Messrs. Lambert, Pare and Haile, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights, were grand successes, the people turning out in large numbers, and being very enthusiastic." The Solano Republican, a Republican paper, says: "Hon. John Lambert made a most effective address at the Democratic meeting at Suisun, and adds, it was a very able effort throughout and was received with enthusiastic applause."

"EVERYTHING looks well so far," is the unanimous report of the Democratic candidates as they report from the different parts of the county. A few more days will tell the story for weal or woe in their behalf. We have full confidence that the greater part, if not the entire Democratic ticket will be elected. There is no good reason why its candidates should not be elected from top to bottom.

A. C. KEAN.

We hope the Democrats will not forget that A. C. Kean is candidate for County Treasurer, and that he is the right man in the right place. If the people look to their best interests they will keep Mr. Kean where he is. He has done more hard work and got less pay for it than any officer who has ever served a term in Yolo County. Mr. Smith, his opponent, is engaged in a lucrative business and does not need the office. Mr. Kean does need it, and hence we hope to see him elected.

MAJ. J. E. R. O'FARRELL, our popular candidate for Surveyor, has completed his fight, and leaves his case in the hands of the voters. James has made an honorable, manly canvass, and we think he will be elected by a handsome majority. He deserves it.

The Yolo Democrat

Thursday, Sept. 6th, 1877.

GEO. M. MOTT is the authorized agent of this paper in Sacramento for soliciting advertisements and subscriptions, collecting bills, etc.

Every letter or communication to the DEMOCRAT should bear the name of the author, not necessarily for publication, but as a guaranty of good faith.

Town and County Matters

Reply to "Justice."

WOODLAND, Aug. 30th, 1877.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—Having just returned home, and finding in your paper an unmerited political homily in the form of a communication, personating and accosting me in an ungentlemanly manner (because is is ungentlemanly to publish my name in a political connection when I am not a candidate for office), I deem it my duty to answer the inconsistent charges which "Justice" has dealt out to me.

In the first place, if my influence is so singularly nominal, why does your correspondent, over different nom de plumes, and from different locations, create such an egregious howl about me. Does this strengthen Mr. B. or "weakin him"? If it really does make no difference with Mr. Baker's political future I would certainly like for his friends to give me a rest on this matter.

The crime that seems to have merited all this furious bombardment, is the simple fact that I have seen fit to make known the course I intended to pursue at the coming election. I have a "plank" in my platform which says that "I vote for no man for any office unless it affords me some particular pleasure to do so;" nor will chastisements in the way of open communications alter my opinions one iota.

In regard to the enormous debt of fealty which I owe to the party, and which is submitted as a reason why I should vote for Mr. B., I have to say that directly and indirectly I have voted for him in primaries and at general elections for the last two elections.

That I hold an office by appointment under Democratic administration, like the preceding portion of his article, is also true; but the indirect inference that I was then and there "formed out of chaos," is a woeful mistake. As I have lost money in the office, the publicity of having been created by "Justice" and Mr. Baker (?) is all that I have to lay away as the proceeds of my official career.

So, while I thus retire into oblivion, by virtue of failing to vote as he wishes—and I feel as proud of my recalcitrant (?) position as does he of having been the father of this article—may your correspondent allow me to rest there in peace, is the earnest request of

Yours truly, JNO. A. BROWN.

A Card from Judge Armstrong.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—Sir—Having seen in Tuesday's issue of the Mail an item headed "That Tax Business," in which the services of Mr. Baker, in the "tax cases," are lightly spoken of, I deem it but just to him to say that he is grossly misrepresented in the article. The facts are as follows: When I was retained as counsel the issues had been made up in the District Court and all the points had been raised by the District Attorney, which were afterwards argued in the Supreme Court. It was not necessary to deny by the answer duress as the facts showing a want of duress appeared in the complaint. The question most discussed was as to what constituted legal duress. Mr. Baker raised this question on the argument of the demurrer; but it was decided against him in the District Court, and then I was called into the case and argued the same question at the trial in that Court and failed to convince the Judge; but on appeal, the Supreme Court sustained our view. As to what was legal duress in cases like those tax cases was a vexed and unsettled question, and able lawyers differ in regard to it. Judge Denson, whom all must admit is a good lawyer, believed there was duress within the meaning of the law, but the Supreme Court agreed with us. As only one hour is allowed to each side for argument in the Supreme Court, Mr. Baker thought it would be better for me to make the entire argument without dividing the time. It is not unusual for associate counsel to be employed by cities and counties to assist District Attorneys, and especially where the interests involved are great and questions are vexed. In difficult cases I always feel safer with an associate. The successful determination of those tax cases was mainly due to the skillful management of the District Attorney, Mr. Baker.

JOHN W. ARMSTRONG.

Aug. 23d, 1877. Sup't of Schools.

"The Boys."

EDITOR DEMOCRAT: We are California boys by birth and education, and we are proud of it. We are not for Garoutte. We remember that it is only about one year since Garoutte wanted to have some of us arrested for expressing our appreciation of that noble man Samuel J. Tilden, in cheers on the streets of Woodland.

We do not claim to number "three score," but we will come to the polls pretty ssrong, and Bakercan count on us solid. We are going to give Garoutte a "hist" on the 5th of September. In fact we think we will "hist" him so high that he will alight on the hurricane deck of that noted vessel that takes a trip up Salt River every year or two.

Now, Mr. Editor, that "Michigander," as the Mail calls him, can rest assured that we will help to re-elect him to that position he has so honorably filled, and that we will teach Mr. Garoutte to be a little more discreet in his treatment of "California boys."

SOME MORE CALIFORNIANS.

Sheep Driven Off.

We learn from the Dixon Tribune of September 1st, that Messrs. Enos, of Davisville, and Maxwell, of Buckeye, recently had a hundred and fifty head of sheep stolen from their range near Putah Cañon, and after a short hunt discovered them in a man's pasture at Maine Prairie. He appeared unable to give any definite idea of how they came there—said they were driven to his place during the night by some unknown party, etc. The sheep were driven home, and here the matter will probably rest.

The Mass Meeting.

The mass meeting Monday was a rouser indeed. Governor Irwin, Gen. Minis and Controller Brown were present, and there were delegations from nearly all parts of the county.

At an early hour bonfires were lighted and illuminated the town. The Ellis Band inspired the crowd with its patriotic music, and by the time the speaking commenced Main street was thronged with people, all of whom seemed alive with interest in the pending issues of the campaign.

J. H. Murphy, Secretary of the County Central Committee, was chosen Chairman of the Meeting, who, after a few well-timed remarks introduced State Controller Brown. Mr. Brown made one of those stirring speeches for which he is so noted, showing the causes for the troubles that are bearing down our people, here and elsewhere, and pointing out the remedy for the evils. We regret that space will not permit even a synopsis of the speeches made.

Governor Irwin was then loudly called for and appeared upon the stand. His manly form, his noble bearing and eloquent words made a deep impression upon the large crowd of listeners present. The Governor did not confine himself to local issues, but went deeply into questions affecting us as a people. The Governor's remarks were listened to with the closest attention.

Mr. Lambert followed and made an elegant speech in his happiest and most effective style, carrying the crowd with him in feeling as few men can. In fact his effort was of that nature that cannot fail to make its mark on Wednesday, and also marked him as our next Senator.

W. M. DeWitt next took the stand in response to the calls of the crowd and in like manner held his audience enchained for half an hour to their edification and his own profit, as will be proven at the ballot-box.

Messrs. Baker, Megowan, Fisher and Monday each made remarks, telling and to the point, and the meeting did not break up till midnight, the large crowd, estimated at a thousand people, anxiously listening to all that was said by the different speakers.

If this meeting can be taken as an indication of the current of popular feeling, it argues emphatically and beyond doubt what the result of the election will be, and further, that it will be in favor of the Democratic party, its candidates and its principles.

Mass Meeting at Dixon.

On Saturday night Centennial Hall at Dixon was packed with a dense crowd to listen to addresses of the Democratic candidates for Representatives to the Legislature for that county, and by Hon. John Lambert, candidate for Joint Senator.

Mr. Ed. E. Leake presided, and when after a few eloquent introductory remarks he introduced Hon. R. C. Hatle, candidate for Assembly for Solano, the enthusiasm began. Mr. Hatle made an eloquent speech, denouncing the infamous Sargent ring in withering sarcasm. He was frequently interrupted with storms of applause.

Mr. Hatle was followed by Hon. Jno. T. Dare, of Vallejo, also a candidate for the Assembly. Mr. Dare is one of the most prominent young men in his county, and will do honor to her as her Representative in the next Legislature. He is evidently very popular, as his eloquent words were listened to with rapt attention, and were accorded frequent bursts of applause.

But it was reserved for the Hon. John Lambert to be the lion of the occasion. Not being well known in that locality, expectation was on tip-toe as to what kind of man he would prove to be. He was received with tremendous cheers upon being introduced by Mr. Leake, and it was some moments before quiet could be restored, so that Mr. Lambert could proceed. It is unnecessary to give a resume of his speech. We all know his talent for oratory, and his understanding of the glorious principles he advocates. He held his audience enchained for two hours, and when he closed such a scene ensued as was never witnessed in Dixon before. Amidst the wildest enthusiasm they crowded around and congratulated him upon his masterly effort. When the crowd descended to the street, Mr. Lambert and the candidates for Assembly for Solano were captured and actually carried to the hotel upon the shoulders of their enthusiastic admirers.

The speech-making fever seemed to be in fections, for when the procession, headed by the Dixon Brass Band, reached the hotel, speeches were made by several gentlemen, among whom was our eloquent townsman, Abe Morris.

Republican Lie Nailed.

Wagstaff asserted in the Mail this morning that Mr. Baker has led 1,000 bogus Republican tickets printed with his name upon them for District Attorney. Mr. Baker denounces this as an infamous and premeditated falsehood. Mr. Baker personally accosted Mr. Wagstaff this morning, and asked him to give his authority for publishing the same. This he declined to do, which leaves the impression, as Mr. Baker told him, that he, Wagstaff, had printed the tickets himself, to enhance, in a dirty, low way, the election of his pet.

Yolo County District Lodge, I. O. G. T.

At a regular session of Yolo County District Lodge, I. O. G. T., held at Dunnigans September 1st, 1877, the following officers were elected and installed by Past District Deputy J. Gutcher: M. C. Winchester, D. D. G. W. C. T.; E. A. Moody, D. V. T.; R. N. Peck, D. Secretary; R. P. Davidson, D. F. S.; J. Black, D. T.; J. Reid, D. M.; E. Wilkerson, D. I. G.; B. F. Loomis, D. O. G.; H. A. Ball, D. R. H. S.; A. Sims, D. L. H. S.; T. J. Goin, D. A. S.; E. Reid, D. D. M.; Wm. Sims, D. Chaplain; J. H. Norton, Past District Deputy G. W. C. T.

Notice.

I want to say to all who purchased tickets to the proposed lectures of Mr. Guard, that our friends who sold them the tickets will see them soon and return them their money. I had a letter from Dr. Benson, editor of the California Christian Advocate, last night. He says Dr. Guard is afflicted with neuralgia of the heart and had to be carried out of his pulpit last Sunday morning and taken to his home, and he would not be surprised to hear of his death at any time. I want all to feel that in this whole matter we acted in good faith.

W. C. CURRY.

A Good Man Gone.

J. E. P. Weeks, a pioneer of California, and who, for twenty continuous years was news editor of the Sacramento Union, died last night aged 61 years. "Sacramento has not had within her limits a citizen more esteemed wherever he was known. Patient, industrious, honest, retiring, kind to all and beloved by his family; yet Mr. Weeks mingled but little in society, and therefore his acquaintance with this people was not so great as his position would indicate. He was the hardest, steadiest, most unremitting newspaper worker that we have known in Sacramento, and this labor told upon him to such an extent at last that he fell down under its weight about a year ago never to arise again. So far as our observation went, he took no recreation, he had no idle days, he was continually plodding and worrying over exchanges; and the result of this constant, laborious work we have before us in his case to-day. He was often advised by physicians and others that human nature could not long endure such mental labor without rest and recreation, and like Horace Greeley, who was always going a fishing, but never went, Mr. Weeks said he would soon take a rest—and he has taken it now and forever! He was a good man, well respected in this community, and well deserved the love of his family, which he enjoyed in an eminent degree.—Sac. Bee, Aug. 29.

The Stereopticon at Capay.

J. W. King, the photographer, and Rev. Jos. Lanman will repeat on Saturday evening Sept. 8th, in Grangers' Hall, the exhibition given here a few evenings ago. We hope our friends at Capay will all go, and if they enjoy it as well as Woodland people did, they will be glad they went and took the children.

The Coroner's verdict in the case of Wm. Skelton, killed at Madison by the cars, was "accidental death."

The statement in the Mail that F. E. Baker has had spurious tickets printed is false as it is mean and despicable.

Elston & White have just laid in a stock of choice brands of cigars from Philadelphia. They also have other goods on the way from different points.

The Mail is wide of the mark as to the author of the "Boys'" article in the DEMOCRAT. It cuts so deeply that the Mail just wishes it knew who the author was.

The last number of the Cacheville Tribune is the dirtiest of the lot. It will doubtless die in its own filth after one more issue, "unwept, unhonored and unsung."

Richard Forester has purchased the interest of his late partner, Mr. Ludden, and will hereafter "go it alone." He has already received a lot of new goods from the Bay.

The Advocate says that up to Friday last there was stored in the Grangers' warehouse at Winters 2,350 tons of wheat. In warehouse No. 2 there was stored 100 tons of hay.

To our innocent and unsophisticated readers we have no objection to state that the stripe on ladies' stockings worn in the streets runs up and down. Our reporter has to learn such things, because he writes for the papers.

Read Forrester's announcement. He proposes to push business, and that is the only way in which it can be done to any extent nowadays. The men who are the most liberal advertisers are invariably the most liberal with their customers.

The maddest man we saw yesterday was a "B. B. & H." Democrat who was left out at a bibulous conclave, wherein one of the immaculate trio stood the tods. His maledictions were earnest and deep. He wanted to leave, he said, and not vote at all.

J. K. will do a pretty good business in the undertaking line the day after the election, disposing of the remains of slaughtered Republicans. But that won't do, either, as he will be one of the corpses himself. Oh, well, guess Krellenburg can give 'em a send off.

The Dixon Tribune says that Dr. A. H. Pratt, formerly of Woodland but now of that town, will soon start for New York, where he intends to remain until Spring, when, if the war continues, he will go to Europe and offer his services as a surgeon in one of the opposing armies.

He thought he'd get the nomination, and was glad.

Man Killed by a Stallion.

The Petaluma Courier of Thursday says: Early this morning the Norman stallion Cognac, owned by Skillman & Wooden, and kept at the race track, broke his halter and kicked out of the stable. He roamed about the track and brought up in front of the house occupied by the Kenney brothers, out of which James Kenney came to get some wood. The horse made a plunge for him, catching him by the shoulder with his teeth, and throwing him into the air. Kenney fell lifeless to the ground, and the horse commenced pawing him with his forefeet. The infuriated animal then took the body in his teeth and dragged it some three hundred feet, shaking it as a terrier would a rat. Finally the services of Dolores Pacheco, an experienced vaquero, were secured, who entered the arena, mounted on an active sadle-horse and succeeded in conjunction with another man in securing the stallion and leading him to the stable.

The Omaha Bridge Disaster.

OMAHA, August 25.—About 3:30 this morning, during the prevallance of a terrific rain and wind storm, about five hundred feet of the eastern end of the Union Pacific iron bridge was precipitated into the river. The piers were left standing uninjured, but the rest of that part of the bridge is a total wreck. For the present all the trains from the Pacific Coast will have to transfer passengers and freight via Plattsmouth, Nebraska and Missouri Valley. There are various surmises as to the cause of the accident, but the general impression is that a cyclone struck it. John Pierson, night watchman, was at the guardhouse at the east end at the time the accident occured, and had a narrow escape from death. He was pinned in the river for half an hour before being able to extricate himself. The loss is estimated at about $350,090. It will probably take two or three months to rebuild the structure.

The New York Times' Utica correspondent claims that he has had an interview with Senator Conkling and his friends. Conkling believes that Tilden was really elected President. He denounces Hayes, and thinks New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio will go strongly Democratic.

The New York Times says: The new telegraphic rates are still under consideration by the authorities of the Western Union and Atlantic and Pacific Companies. All messages to and from points east of the Mississippi and Missouri rivers are to be raised $1 per ten words. The tariff to Chicago is to be increased to 40 cents, and to St. Louis to 50 cents.

A Card to the Public.

For many years we have made two medicines suited to the ailments of a vast class of sufferers. Thousands of cures have been made by them, and, in fact, the word failure could not be coupled with them. But within the last two years counterfeits of our medicines have sprung up, dangerous in their close imitation of our trade mark. To secure the people we have placed upon each genuine box of Holloway's Ointment the fac simile of the signature of our agent, Mr. Jos. Haydock. To counterfeit is felony. We shall relentlessly pursue any one who imitates this with the utmost rigor of the law. We most earnestly beg that the great mass of the American people will aid us in our efforts to protect their health, and help us in our task of bringing these most unprincipled men to the bar of justice. Uniformly refuse to purchase Medicines purporting to be ours unless Mr. Jos. Haydock's signature is attached to each box of Pills or pot of Ointment, and the end will soon be reached.

Peruvian Syrup.
BROOKS, Me., Sept. 7, 1870.
DEAR SIR—From early youth I was in feeble health, troubled with humor in my blood, weakness and debility of the system generally; was unable to labor much, and only at some light business, and then only with great caution. Seven years ago, the past Spring, I had a severe attack of diptheria, which left my limbs paralyzed and useless, so I was unable to walk or even sit up. Noticing the advertisement of PERUVIAN SYRUP, I concluded to give it a trial, and to my great joy soon found my health improving. I continued the use of the SYRUP until three bottles had been used, and was restored to complete health, and have remained so to this day. I attribute my present health entirely to the use of PERUVIAN SYRUP, and hold it in high estimation. I cannot speak too highly in its praise. I have in several cases recommended it in cases very smilar to my own with the same good results.
Yours truly, CHARLES E. PEARCY.

Letter on a Constitutional Convention.

LETTER IV.

At the beginning of this series of letters it was my intention to have gone over most of the ground covered by the question involved; but business engagements have prevented me from carrying out my plan. I submit this, the last letter of the series, as a very brief and general statement of what was intended to occupy several letters. I shall here indicate the salient features of a plan of government shited, as I think, to accomplish the ends we have been considering; but I shall be obliged to omit any arguments in support of it, leaving those for the reader himself.

I suppose, then, that each county in the State shall be divided into a convenient number of "towns;" that each of these "towns" shal be a munuicpal corporation vested with the exclusive control of all local affairs; that, among other things, the subjects of local roads, bridges, schools, licenses, estrays and tresspassing animals, police and health matters, and all similar subjects, together with all taxation in support of these objects, shall be remitted entirely to the control of the "towns;" that the legislative power in these "towns," that is, the power to make laws and regulations, to levy taxes, etc., shall be vested in, and exercised by the entire body of voters of the "town," assembled in "town-meeting" for that purpose; that all power over "local" questions shall be taken from the State Legislature, leaving that body to determine such questions and levy such taxes, only, as effect the entire State; and, lastly, to take away, absolutely and forever, all power in the State or in any municipal corporation to incur any debt whatever; leaving all funds to be raised by immediate and direct taxation.

In the above I have used the word "towns" because, in those parts of the United States where a similar system prevails, these local communities or divisions are called by this name. This plan, in its essential features, has existed in the New England States ever since their settlement, and was adopted, with some modifications, by the Middle States about the time of the Revolution. And I will only say here, in vindication of my choice of this plan, that the New England States, where this system has always existed, enjoys and has enjoyed a measure of liberty and prosperity wholly beyond that of any other section of the country. This has been noticed by most people; by some with admiration, and by others with envy and hatred. It has been attributed to their Puritan element, to their climate, to their history, to anything and everything except the true cause; but the whole secret of the matter is, that they have had a system of government truly free and Democratic in principle, enjoying the right and exercising the power of local self-government to its fullest extent.

With regard to the last clause in the above plan, forbidding debt, I will say that it has never been actually tried anywhere, to my knowledge; but everywhere political economists have concluded that such a restriction has become absolutely essential; and I am fully convinced that its adoption will free us from a most intolerable evil. No government can be extravagant for any length of time, if the money must be raised in advance by direct taxation. Touch the pockets of the voter; take from him, in a manner he understands, a sum of money; and all his faculties are awakened to see if he cannot diminish the drain on his purse, and thus economy would be the logical result. On this question I would recommend to every one to read the article "Democracy," by Charles O'Conor, in Johnson's Cyclopœdia, which, together with the article "Republic," by Carl Schurz, in the same book, furnishes an immense amount of instructive thought on our governmental system.

There are many other points in which our present Constitution is defective, but which I have not had time to notice. The judiciary imperatively requires remodeling; the system of revenue must be placed on a better basis; and some method must be devised whereby the power of aggregated capital, in corporations and elsewhere, may be rendered less dangerous to the liberty and prosperity of the people. There can scarcely be a man who will not admit that a change is demanded in some or all of these respects, but there will, necessarily, be widely differing views as to the manner of the change. For want of space, therefore, I will make no suggestions as to these matters.

In these letters I have called attention to many and crying evils in our government, and I feel assured that a large majority of my readers feel convinced of the necessity of a change. The only questions that remain to us, then, are: First, can these changes be effected by the ordinary process of amendments to the Constitution, or will they require a Constitutional Convention? and second, is this the time at which to call such a Convention?

In answer to the first question, I say that, if the evils I have complained of exist at all, no amount of mere amendment can cure them. Amendment implies something to amend, some existing basis on which to work; but, as I have shown, these evils are rooted in the system itself; it is the very basis that is wrong, and nothing but a complete revision will answer. Our Constitution was adopted in haste, at a time when the wants of the State were not and could not be known; and it has displayed, at every stage, the result of crude and hasty legislation, made by persons unacquainted with the subject matter. It is a matter of history that it was taken, almost bodily, from the Constitution of Iowa; not because it had worked well there; not because the conditions of that State were like ours; but, forsooth, because the Constitution of that State was one of the shortest in existence; and thus, partly on the theory that "brevity is the soul of wit," and partly through mere haste, indolence and incompetency, were we saddled with a Constitution wholly unadapted to our wants, and, so far as can be learned, very improperly adapted to any country. And I broadly and specifically challenge any person to point me to any portion of this system that is in any sense Californian, that in any manner accords with any theory of good government, or that has shown any advantages whatever in actual practice. On the other hand I have shown, and will maintain, that the whole system is foreign to our condition, absurd and futile in theory, and oppressive and wasteful in practice; and I demand, as every person thinking on the subject has demanded, that it be swept away, and that democratic institutions be restored, not in any partisan sense, but in the old and time-honored sense of government of the people, for the people, and by the people. No process of amendment can do this, nor can we trust any legislature to curtail its own powers; but we need and require a convention fresh from the people, elected without regard to political parties, and chosen with a view only to the matter to be done. Such a convention, representing this State, not in its childhood, but in its young, lusty manhood, can give us a Constitution adapted to our wants, and under which we may enjoy all those priceless blessings bequeathed to us by our fathers, but of the use of which we have so blindly deprived ourselves. And this is the time to accomplish these things; now is the hour most propitious to this undertaking. The corruption and rottenness at the heart of the body politic exhibited at the late Presidential election; the recent struggle of the people with powerful monopolies; the strikes and riots at the East, and their reflection here; all these things, and many others, have awakened the popular mind; and, while they dispose the people to think seriously of these things, they also show us that no time is to be lost. The people of the United States are sleeping on the edge of a volcano; an eruption may occur at any moment, with consequences too dreadful to predict; and, as our late experience has shown, no disturbance of any magnitude can occur without involving us in its effects. Our immediate duty, then, is to prepare ourselves, so that, should a crash come, this State at least may be found in a condition to resist any assaults from without or disturbance within; and, by a course of freedom and economy, realize that exemption from discord and oppression which has been the hope of ages and the ideal of government.

Electors of Yolo county: Vote, every man, "FOR THE CONVENTION!" See to it that no indolence or apathy on your part shall deprive you of this chance of retrieving your liberty. Vote for the Convention because you need it; vote for the Convention because you cannot do without it; vote for the Convention because all lovers of the country demand it; and, lastly, vote for the Convention because all the rings, all the office seekers, all the political strikers, and all the monopolists will vote against it. See that your ballots have the words, "For the Convention," upon them; watch the polls to see that your votes are counted, and rest not until your efforts are crowned with success and California rejoices in a free, an independent, an orderly, and a prosperous government. Letter from Cacheville.

The Agricultural Outlook—Politics Running Smoothly—Flattering Prospects for the Democracy—The Duty of the Citizen.

[By Our Regular Correspondent.]

CACHEVILLE, Aug. 29, 1877.

EDITOR DEMOCRAT:—The farmers in this region are again preparing for the sowing season. We regard the outlook as very favorable and look forward to the coming season with more than usual hope. The severity of the past spring cut off many noxious weeds, leaving the soil comparatively free from their presence. The rains were not sufficiently heavy to pack the soil; the growth of vegetation was so light as not to materially diminish the elements of nutrition, while at the same time the land was rested and replenished, so that in most places the ground that was sown late in the spring will almost be equivalent to summer-fallow and may be seeded with much less labor than usual. An abundant yield next season will in a measure compensate us for what we have lost the past year. While we hope for the best, we must not lose sight of the possibility of another drouth more disastrous than the one we have just had, and I would admonish farmers to keep in reserve supplies sufficient for such a contingency. In southern California we have an example of the damage and suffering that may be entailed upon a people by their failing to guard against such disasters by providing beforehand. "Always be prepared for the worst and hope for the best," is a good motto.

Politics run smoothly in this section. The people feel confident that we are to have a fair, square expression of their judgement, and that it will result in the election of the entire Democratic ticket. They feel satisfied that the tide of investigation, demolition and reformation that is sweeping across the land will permeate every avenue of our politics, from the United States Senate down to the lowest township office. The day is past for fraud and trickery to triumph over right and justice. The people are awake, and in the bright light of truth will read the record and character of every applicant for their support. Every voter is now his own counselor. He is posted upon the current events of the day; he has been schooled by the sad experience of the past; he has learned to penetrate the guises of the dishonest tricksters. When he exercises his sacred right upon the fifth of September his ballot will be an honest, intelligent representative of his judgment. It will be a premium awarded to the honest and competent, and a rebuke administered to the unworthy.

Here in our midst we have a candidate who, as everybody knows, procured his nomination in a very peculiar manner. Sam. is a good man—that is, he has a very wholesome fear of the law. He would do no wrong. He would not even tread upon a worm in his path—unless it had swallowed a dime. He is always ready to befriend a fellow being and dispense his blessings "at the rate of one and a-half per cent. per month with real estate security." He never hires a Chinaman if he can get a white man cheaper.

As for Reed, his short comings are too well known to need comment. The voters north of Cache Creek know these men too well to send them to the Legislature. It would be difficult to find in all Yolo two other men whose surroundings and characteristics so peculiarly disqualify them for those positions.

Let every good citizen go to the polls on next Wednesday and vote the Democratic ticket, and he will do something that will redound to the honor and well-being of himself and his countrymen. M.

A Singing Mouse.

Yesterday a gentleman of this city informed us that several nights since, his little daughter came to his room and told him that there was a bird in her room that was singing very sweetly, and insisted upon his coming to her room and listening to it. The gentleman thought it was a katydid his child had heard, and put her off by telling her to go to bed, that he would be there in a few minutes. A night or two after he was awakened by his wife, who told him to listen, that there was a mocking-bird across the way singing. He got up and went to the window, but could hear no sound from the street, and was convinced that the noise was made in his room. He struck a match for the purpose of making an investigation, and there sat on the washstand, within a foot of where he lighted the match, a little mouse, singing gaily and distinctly, and imitating a mocking-bird to perfection. Since that night the mouse has become domesticated, and nearly every afternoon makes its appearance and delights the family with a variety of warbling, the sounds of which are not so loud as that of a mocking-bird. The mouse has been heard by several parties boarding with the gentleman. The little animal, with only slight intermissions, sings nearly all night.—Shreveport Times.

Improving Trade Prospects.

NEW YORK, August 22.—The Times has the following on the trade prospect. In the grain trade there is great hope of good times coming with the immense crops from the West, and there is a steady healthful growth in produce and grocery trades, which is encouraging. Merchants are satisfied with small profits. The volume of business done by the grocer is larger up to this time than it was at a corresponding date last year. Clothing manufacturers are feeling uncertain, but there is good inquiry for their wares. Boot and shoe manufacturers and hatters say they have not done so much business for many years. Hard as the times are called, pianomakers have had good business, and the dry-goods trade reports indicate an improvement of from 30 to 50 per cent. in leading houses. There is not so much disposition as there was last August to make sanguine predictions, but the conviction is strong upon business men that they will keep the ground they have recovered and continue to do fair business with moderate returns.

Terrible State of Affairs in Southern India.

LONDON, August 29.—The editor of the Madras Times, a member of the Relief Committee, writes under date of August 1st: The population of Southern India more or less affected by the famine number 21,000,000. In the most favorable circumstances at least one-sixth will die. Twenty-three people in all have died of starvation in Bengal. In Madras no camp of 3,000 rises morning after morning without leaving thirty corpses. In the interior the distress is most fearful. One gentleman, passing down the valley in Wyland district, counted twenty-nine bodies on the road. A coffee planter seeking shelter from the rain in a hut found six decomposed bodies in it. On any day and every day mothers may be seen in the streets of Madras offering their children for sale, while the foundling portion of the poorhouse is full of infants found by the police on the roads, deserted by their parents. Since the famine began 500,000 people have died of want and distress.

Rev. Bro. Justin, President of St. Mary's College, San Francisco, will deliver a lecture in Washington Hall on Tuesday evening, September 4th, for the benefit of the Catholic Church and Residence. The subject of the lecture will be the "Destiny of Man."

Make the following proposition to those who wish Monuments or Headstones, and who come to the City for the express purpose of selecting.

We will pay the R.R. fare both ways when the distance and amount of purchase compare with the following table:

$50 00	Contract—	30	miles or less.
$100.00	"	50	" "
$250.00	"	75	" "
$1,000.00	"	300	" "

Thus giving purchasers the opportunity of making their selections, instead of dealing with inexperienced canvassers.

Cut this out and bring it with you, and after you have made your purchase, present it, and we will give you credit for your R. R. fare both ways.
